Dear Dr. Green:

Several weeks ago while attending the dedication of the Hailstone Park by Jordanelle Reservoir I spoke to you after you had talked at the gathering of the decendents of William Hailstone.

You spoke of a Japanese-American relocation settlement at Keetly during Word Ward II and I mentioned to you that I had just determined that a neighbor of mine had been at Keetly at the time. He recently passed away and it was at his funeral that I first learned that he and his wife were there.

His wife is still living and I spoke to her of our conversation and asked if she had any information that would be helpful to you in your writing of that aspect of Heber Valley. She was very gracious and spoke very freely of her experiences and loaned me some literature that I copied and am enclosing with this letter. These items do not need to be returned as they are copies of what she has.

I told her that it was possible that you might want to contact ^{her} by letter, phone, or in person and she said that she would be happy to talk to you if she could be of help. She stated that she was sixteen years old when she lived there. Her husband who she met at Keetley was from Monterey, California and she was from San Jose. Her name is Mary Tabata and she lives at 4000 Olympic Way Salt Lake City, Utah 84124. (Olympic Way is 3250 East in Salt Lake City) Her telephone number is 801-278-9997. Her deceased husband was Noboru Tabata but went by the nickname of Skip.

Very truly yours,
